Why: While the teacher is evaluating a student, everyone else in the class would be listening to their lessons repeatedly and perfectly utilizing the class time.

More about this program: Learning in a nazirah class goes through two steps:

1. Teaching correct pronunciation by the teacher
2. Evaluating student pronunciation

This class brings two new elements to the traditional nazirah class. First, we standardize teaching by having our students listen repeatedly to renowned Quran reciters. Second, we utilize every second of the class time by having our students listen and practice using technology.
