Faisal Khan

About Me:

- IACC member/volunteer for 20+ years.
- Electronics engineering manager at Texas Instruments for 25 years.
- Married with two boys.
- My interests include sports, travel and cooking.

Vision

Short term: To foster a vibrant, inclusive Muslim community where every member has a voice and a sense of belonging.

Long Term: Make IACC a center of excellence for spiritual education, community engagement and youth development.

Key goals/ priorities:

- Build on established partnerships with local organizations to enhance outreach & interfaith.
- Reinvigorate our youth development programs.
- Engage diverse stakeholders including women, youth, seniors, reverts to establish clear objectives based on their particular needs.
- Use my experience as a long term volunteer to create opportunities to enhance wider community participation and volunteerism.

Experience

- Sunday School (volunteer)
- Youth (committee lead for boys, organized first youth lockin during Ramadan).
- Events (Lead for Community Iftar, Eid Salah management, Interfaith Dinner, Meet the candidates for school, local and federal elections etc)
- Parking
- Fundraising
- Community Assistance Program (digitized fitra distribution process)

Core Values

- Inclusiveness, collaboration, communication, accountability and transparency.

Key Initiatives

- Host interfaith and civic dialogue events to propagate Muslim voices in the greater community. Engage young professionals to create a media relations strategy
- Develop community service initiatives (e.g., food drives, volunteer days)
